PRESENTS ITS MEMOIRS

We, the seniors of 1954, dedicate this book to Friendship, for we realize that although graduation separates friends, it does not terminate friendship.

S E N I O R S

a senior's soon identified, exuding wisdom, head held high.
distinguished, dapper, dignified, our
mighty monarch passes by.

but look again,
do we detect a humble
heart beneath his roar?
the teardrops in his eye reflect
his one last glimpse of grant high's door.

SENIOR COUNSELORS

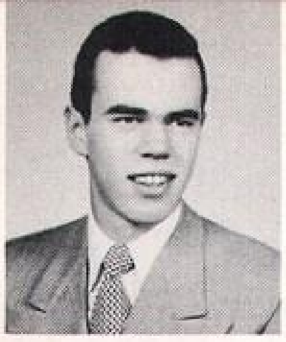

Mrs. Grace Hiestand and Mr. Charles Orr

As we graduate, we should like to express our gratitude to the counselors who have so earnestly helped us with our problems of academic and social adjustment in the past four years. To them we give our most humble thanks.

Class Song

Tune: THROUGH THE YEARS

We, the class of 1954
Bid you all adieu;
These four years have brought us lasting friendships,
Ever to ring true.

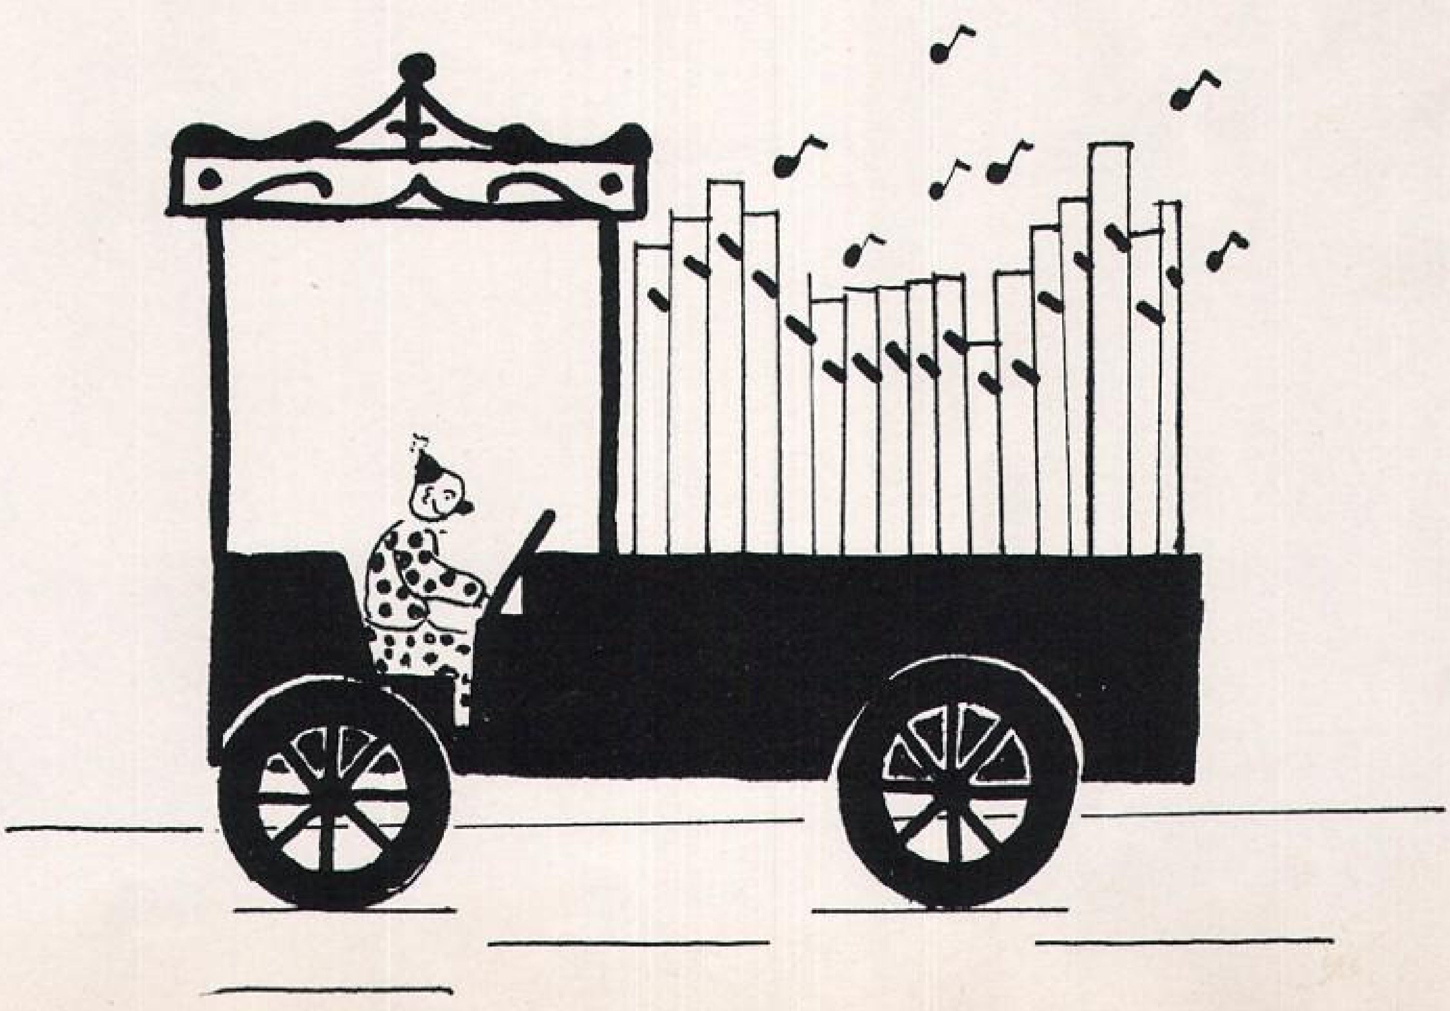

As we leave to travel on life's highways,
Memories of all our happy school-days
Will remain in ev'ry senior heart
Though we be far apart.

As we stand before life's great adventure,
Years we can't foretell;
Yet, we're sure, this time has not been wasted;
You have taught us well.

We, dear Grant, our voices raise to you,
Singing praises of the grey and blue;
This, our song, we bring:
Oh, ever live, the class of '54.

TRAINERS

"FACULTY"

PRINCIPAL

You, the members of the Class of 1954, are about to graduate. It has been a pleasure to work with each of you and it is with real regret that we see you leave. We sincerely hope that the years spent at U.S. Grant have been both pleasant and profitable to you, and that in years to come you will look back to your high school experience with thankfulness and real satisfaction. Best wishes for your future success and happiness.

Calton Mork

VICE-PRINCIPALS

Mrs. Mary Schroeder

Mr. Harold Kleiner

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot, and never brought to mind," then farewells would indeed be sad events, but friends and experiences of high school days make impressions that time does not easily efface. Now as the doors of Grant High School open outward for you upon greater opportunities for self-improvement and service, you may be sure that these same doors will never close upon the friendships which you have made with faculty and students. We shall miss you.

Mary N. Schroeder

In a few days you of the class of 1954 will receive your diplomas and leave Grant High School. Soon thoughts of Grant will be crowded from your minds by new interests and activities; yet there will always remain within each of you much you have learned and experienced here. We who have helped to prepare you feel that you appreciate democratic values and have a good foundation for your future. We will look forward to hearing of your achievements so we can continue to be proud of you.

Harold Kleiner

Senior Dramateurs

Miss Ethel Ewer Mr. Robert Jackson

One of the things that makes every year at Grant High School distinctive is our drama department. Miss Ewer and Mr. Jackson are responsible for its productions, and most of the work they do is done without pay and many times without thanks. This is our opportunity to extend the thanks of a grateful school for their patience and their cheerful acceptance of extra duties.

The Senior Dramateurs' theatre-in-the-round production of John Patrick's tender comedy The Curious Savage not only reintroduced this form of staging to Grant but provided fine entertainment. Sylvia Gannaway deserves special plaudits for her sensitive portrayal of "Ethel".

nior Dramateurs who worked on the "Curious Savage" ge crew found that their duties were vital to the success he production.

Pantomime and improvised furniture play an important part in a one-act play rehearsal.

Moving the portable set and properties for "Nelson Holiday, Jr." from grade school to grade school, is a problem encountered by the Jr. Dramateurs who have toured this show to the upper-grades of neighboring schools.

Senior drama students provide "background" for the Senior Class Assembly.

The Senior Class Play this year was the hilarious court room comedy, "Ladies of the Jury." Fine character acting added greatly to the humor of the delightful script.

In October the Senior Dramateurs presented the Memoirs assembly, "The Greatest Book on Earth," to promote interest in the yearbook sales.

TIONS

he blue-haired heroine of "The urious Savage" finds herself a nental institution guest in the Sen- or Dramateurs' play.

An impressive tableau of the manger scene was the climax of the Christmas program.

The Second Annual Dance Band Review was very successfully presented by the students of the instrumental and drama departments. The theme was "The History of Jazz."

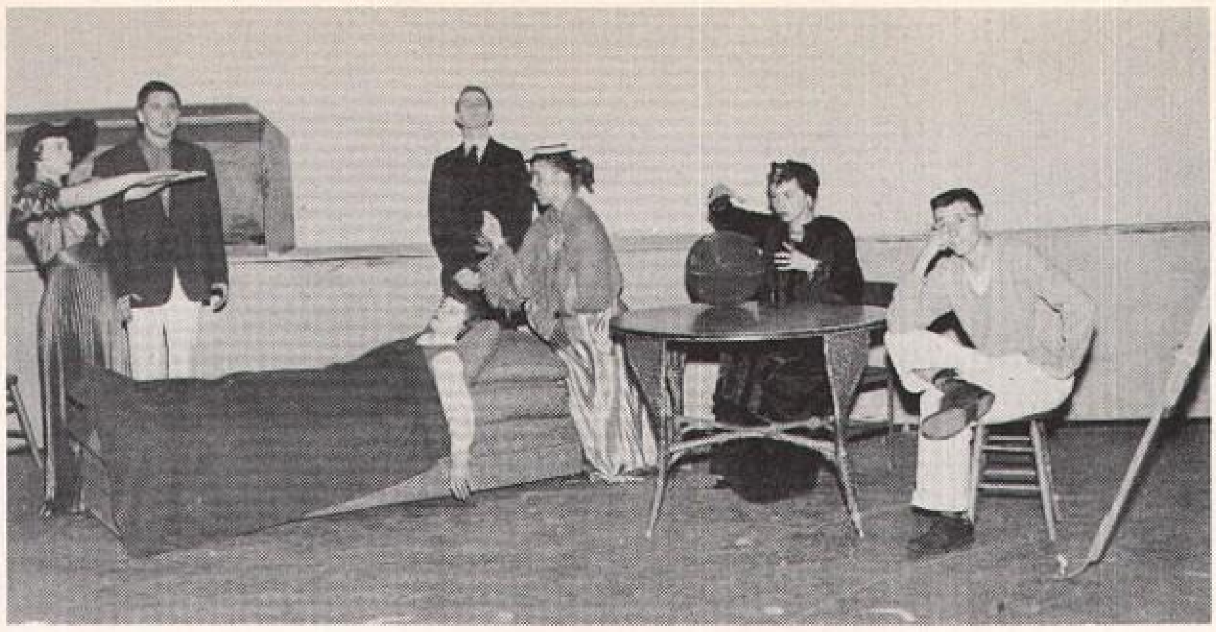

The Lincoln Day program was one of the most successful of the year's serious assemblies. The choral, drama, and instrumental departments combined their talents for this production.

Marni Mahaffey and Dotty Fields' modern dance was but one of the many scintillating acts in the Dads' Club annual variety show.

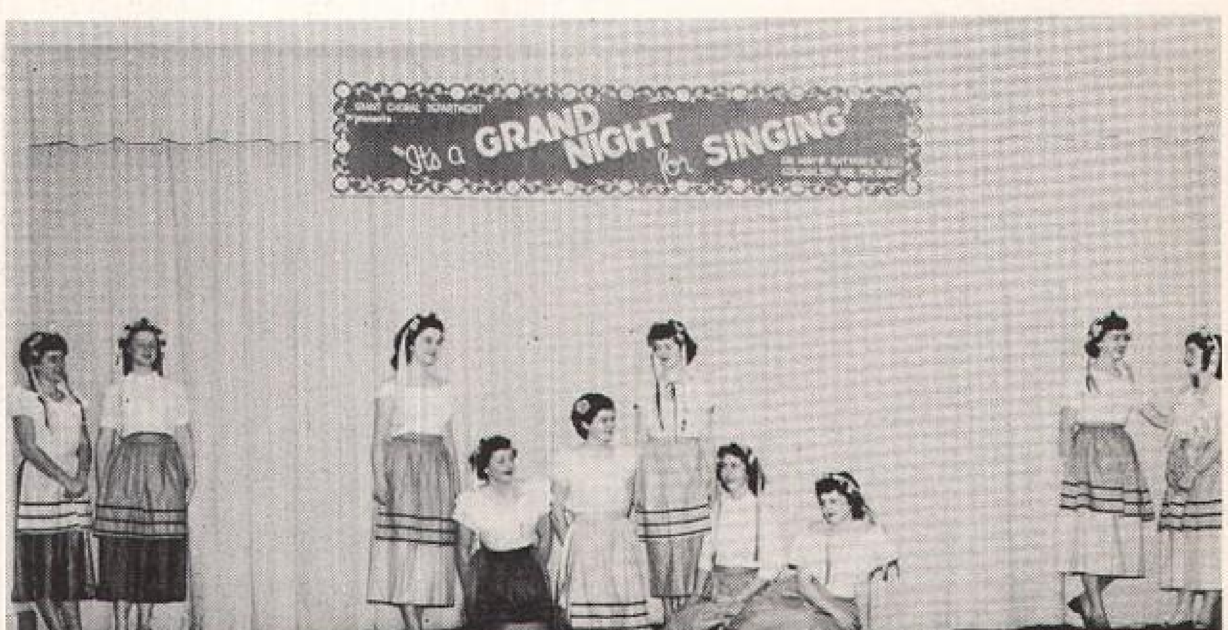

Masque and Gavel's contribution to the year's dramatic season was the light comedy of modern young thespians, "Out of the Frying Pan."

One of this year's outstanding rally assemblies was the one presented by the Junior Dramateurs before the Grant-Jeff football game.

The girls of the triple trio portrayed flower girls in the delightful operetta "Naughty Marietta." The Spring Show in an annual choral department production.

Dads' Club President, Mr. Scearce

Better acquaintance between parents, faculty, and students is the goal of the P. T. A.. A faculty tea in January is one project of the P. T. A.; another is the appointment of one mother to work with the reg. room teacher for better harmony. For these projects and their many other useful activities we wish to express our sincere thanks.

The Grant high Dads' Club held its annual Dads' Club Variety Show in cooperation with the P. T. A. this February. The money raised from this project and others buy many useful things for Grant. The scholarships furnished by the Dads' Club help many of our students attend college. We appreciate the benefits given us by them.

This year, under the leadership of Mr. Cyril Butterfield, the three types of Grant clubs--interest, social, and service--have prospered and grown. Due to the exclusion of the activity periods, school-time clubs were forced to disband or meet after school. Most chose to meet after school.

There are thirty-three clubs at Grant. Fourteen of these are social, ten interest, nine service, one honorary, and two I. R. L. classes which have been organized as clubs.

Profits from club sales and dances have increased the student body fund as well as club treasuries.

A trophy is awarded each year to the outstanding clubs of the term. This year, trophies were awarded to Tisque, Optimist, and Zip in the fall for their outstanding service to the school.

Octo Ducas and Sinco Sanks, boys' social clubs, merged in the fall to form Beta Phi, boys' social club.

The Generals' hopes for revenging last year's defeat by K-Falls proved unfounded for the inexperienced Grant team. Due to a city ruling, Grant had two weeks to prepare, and the Pelicans had three.

The Pelicans opened scoring with a touchdown in the second quarter; the half ended with K-Falls ahead 7-0. In the third quarter, K-Falls drove for a second TD. The Generals were unable to score til the end of the game, when Don Clark passed to Jerry Bolien for the G-men's touchdown. Beaudoin converted.

Grant	0	0	6	6	12
Lincoln	0	0	0	0	0

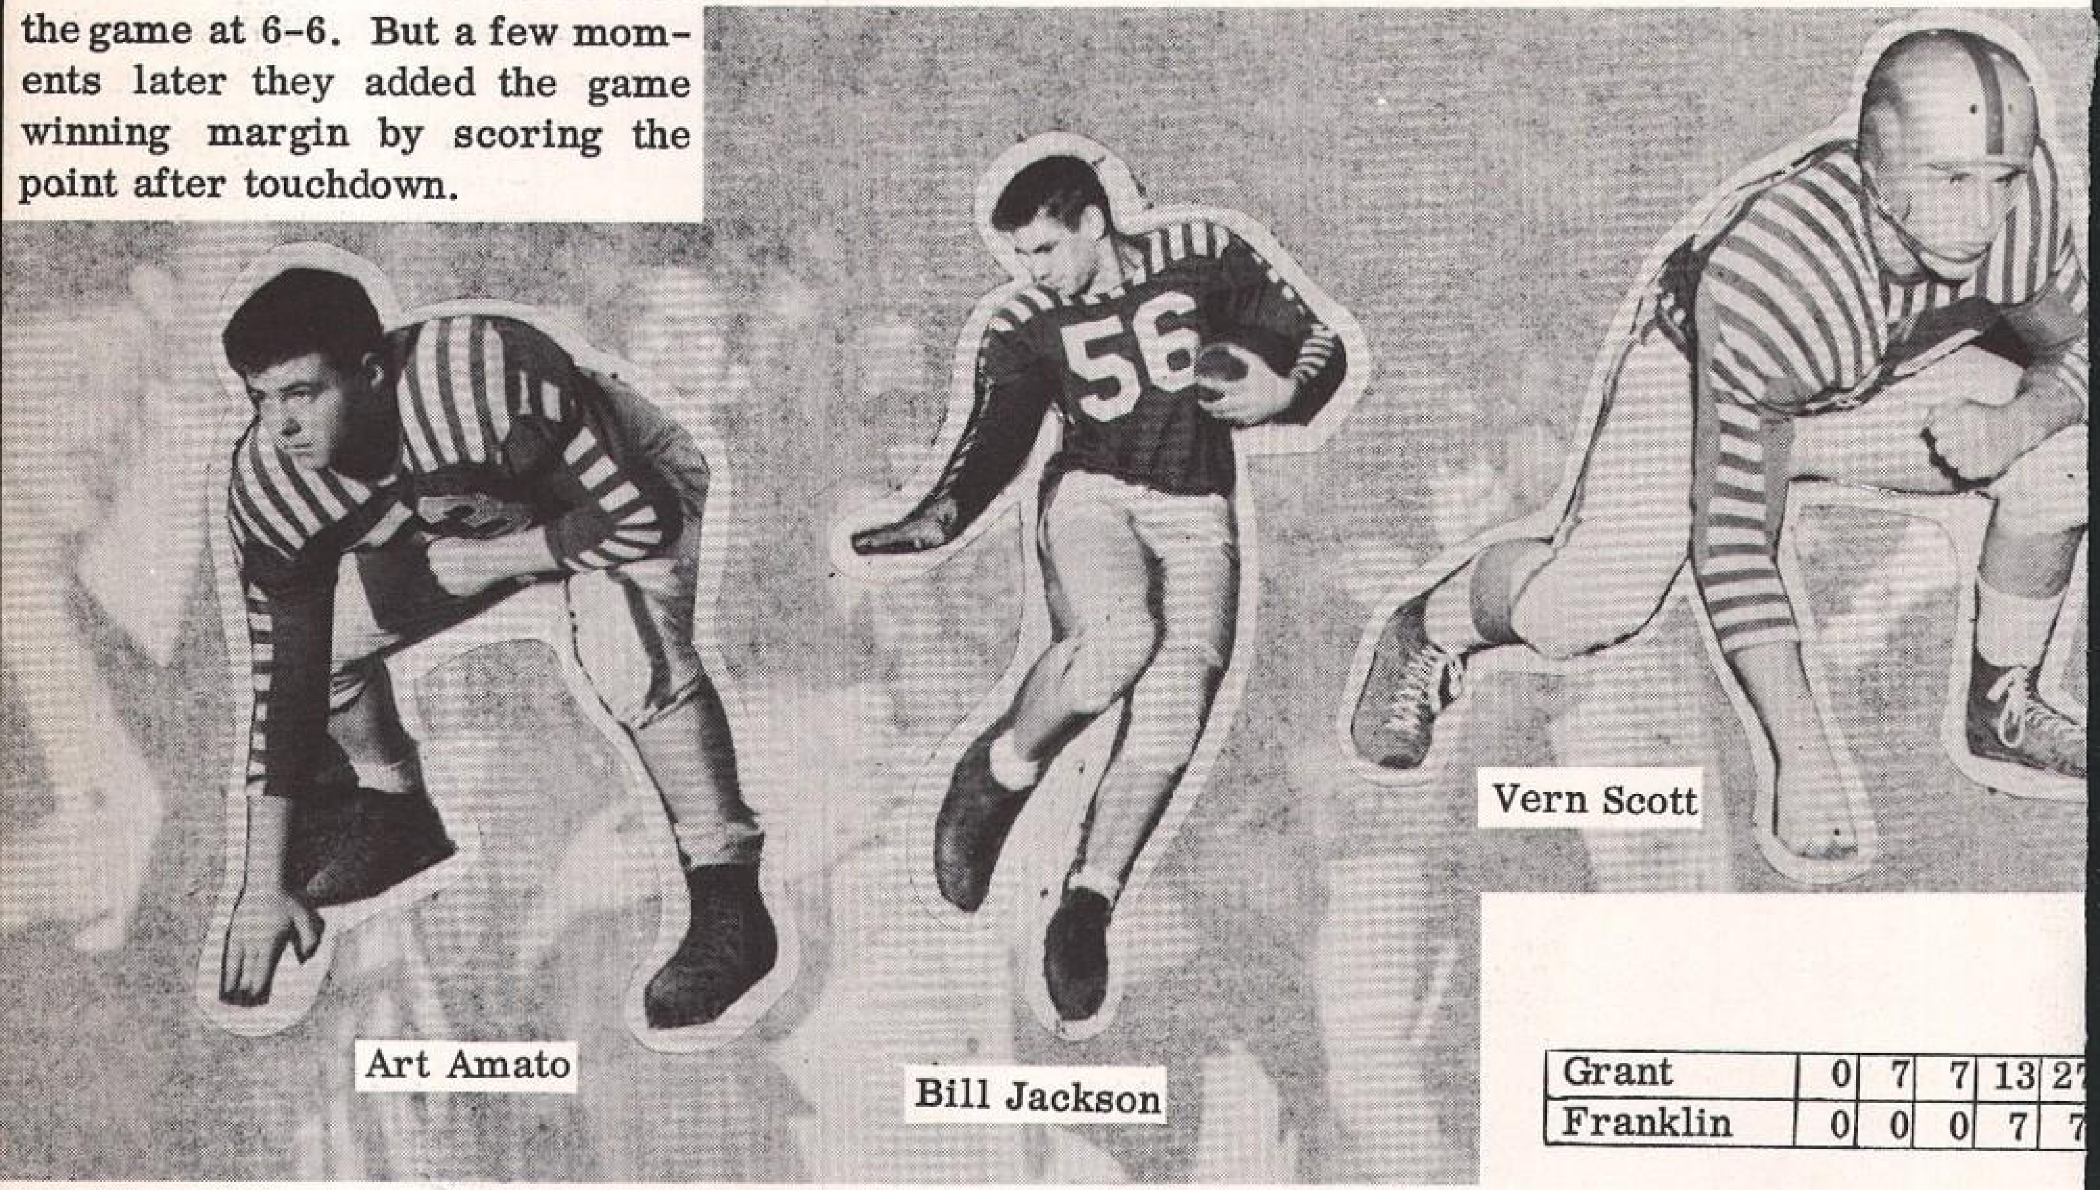

As the first half of the Grant vs. Lincoln game came to a close, the score stood 0-0. It looked like this game would be a repeat of the Grant squad's previous performances. But in the second half, the General offense began to click. Mid-way through the third quarter Manny Robinson returned a Lincoln punt 65 yards for a TD. From that moment on the Generals took control of the game, and although they scored just one more touchdown they did show quite a bit of offensive strength. The TD was scored by Vern Scott on a 20 yard run right through the middle of the Cardinal defense.

Grant	0	6	0	0	6
Roosevelt	0	0	7	0	7

Grant lost a close one to Roosevelt on the Roughriders' field. The Generals scored early in the second quarter on a short pass from Clark to Zell. Grant held an upper hand during the first half, and as it came to a close, the Generals lead 6-0. The second half was a different story however. In the third quarter, the Roughriders unleashed a drive that ended in the Grant end zone. This score tied the game at 6-6. But a few moments later they added the game winning margin by scoring the point after touchdown.

Grant suffered its worst defeat in seven years at the hands of their arch-rival Jefferson. The Democrats had the game under control all the way. They scored twice in the first quarter and once each in the following chapters. Grant was unable to score until the fourth quarter when Bill Acker passed to Bruce Watkins in the Jeff end zone. This defeat was Grant's third in prep competition.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Earl,

Heres wishing you good luck next year in M.Y.F. I know you'll make a great officer. Lots of luck and make the best of all your opportunities. Good luck again,

Jim Welte '54

To a guy I love to tell jokes to.

Love
Jan
Dietje

Earl;
Kisses spread germs the doctor stated, kiss me quick I'm vacinated. Heres hoping we do many more things together.

Love,
Judy

Earl,
To a wonderful kid that I love to tell jokes to. Cause you laugh at anything.
Lots of luck in love,
Jodell Cowell

Earl,
To a good guy to know, even if he is smart.
Janet Johnson

Lots of Luck in the future
Joan Baines

Earl —
It has been fun seeing in your reg.
Lots of Luck
Lisa Tomming

It's been fun knowing + being in some of your classes. I just can't keep up with you in Algebra.

M. Odiorne

Dear Earl,
To a swell and likable boy. You and Judy and I have had more fun. Lots of luck
Love
Barbara Gilliland

P.S. Hope your life needs [illegible]

Earl,
It's been loads of fun being in your
"Latin" class, even though I didn't do so well. I'll probably see you this summer down at Garland's. Maybe we can play softball. Lots of luck in your future
